- If top 8 cannot be achieved, students can still get points for participation of the related competition (see above table)

➤ 15 points → The Number of Competitions representing Macau SAR

Number of Competitions	Points
6 or more	15
3 – 5	10
1 – 2	5

➤ 5 points → Base on the applicants received sports related awards, attended training courses, seminars or large-scale activities which were related to sports

- Each received sports related award in the academic year will be counted as 1 points each;
- Each certificate from attending training courses, seminars or large-scale activities which are related to sports in the year academic will be counted as 1 points each;

If candidates have same scores after the above evaluation is completed, the “Working Group for Award Scoring of Sports Awards” will consider the below circumstances to determine the final scores of the candidates.

➤ 5 points → Base on the applicants’ academic achievements

- The score is according to the academic achievement of the applicants. Base on the scale of GPA, a score of GPA 4.0 is equal to 5 points; and for students in Law major, the top score of 20 is equal to 5 points as well.

e.g. GPA=3, the score is $(3 / 4.0) \times 5 = 3.75$ points;

For students in Law major, if their average score is 12, their will get: $(12 / 20) \times 5 = 3$ points.

If the scores of the candidates are still the same, the below will be considered:

➤ 5 points → Base on the applicants' participation in large-scale non-sports events organized by UM

➤ Each joined event will be counted as 1 point; certificates must be provided

Remark: "Working Group for Award Scoring of Sports Awards" reserves the right to make final decision of the scores.
