

Humanitarian Affairs Asia and the Government of Malaysia is looking for Outstanding Student Leaders to attend the 10th University Scholars Leadership Symposium 2019 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from August 1 to 7.

The University Scholars Leadership Symposium is a week-long leadership development training programme in social change. The Symposium will bring together 1,500 of the world's most promising leaders to one stimulating platform in the heart of Asia. The Programme has been designed for young persons who are committed to making this world a much better place for the human race.

The Ministry of Education in Malaysia will be the lead co-organising government agency for the 10th USLS. Please find below a message from the Minister of Education, Dr. Maszlee Bin Malik:

"This USLS high impact programme aims to provide an avenue for student leaders from various countries to further enhance their leadership skills and awareness of current issues, primarily social development and humanitarian efforts. The event may also inculcate novel values on humanising education through Love, Happiness and Mutual Respect.

It is my hope that all delegates will soon be enriched with knowledge and increased networking, while enjoying a wonderful experience taking in the beauty of Malaysia. It is also my sincere wish that all delegates will become excellent leaders in the near future."

Dr Maszlee Bin Malik - Minister of Education, Malaysia

Note: The University of Kuala Lumpur (UniKL) will be our official academic partner for the 10th USLS. All delegates of the 10th USLS will receive a full transcript of the lectures, workshops and experiential learning activities participated during the week-long symposium. This transcript will allow you to get one credit hour from UniKL and transfer this credit to its equivalent at your university.
